WEISHEIT, JEFFREY ALAN # 106

ON DEATH ROW SINCE 07-11-13
DOB: 03-28-76 DOC#: 108004 White Male

Clark County Circuit Court Judge Daniel Moore
Venued from Vanderburgh County

Trial Cause #: 10C01-1008-MR-000601
Prosecutor: Gary J. Schutte, Charles L. Berger
Defense: Michael J. McDaniel, Stephen H. Owens

Date of Murder: April 10, 2010
Victim(s): Caleb Lynch W / M / 5 (son of girlfriend)
Alyssa Lynch W / F / 8 (daughter of girlfriend)

Method of Murder: Arson fire

Summary: Weisheit lived with Lisa Lynch and her two children, 5 year old Caleb, and 8 year old Alyssa. While Lisa worked a 12 hour shift, Weisheit babysat the children. A fire engulfed the Evansville home, killing both children. Alyssa was found curled up in a closet and Caleb was found with a flare stuffed into his underwear, with a dishcloth in his throat. Weisheit was arrested a few hours later driving his car near Cincinnati, 200 miles away. At trial, Weisheit testified that Caleb was argumentative when he told him to go to bed and that he responded by binding the child's hands with duct tape, stuffed his mouth with a dish cloth and placed tape over his mouth, then left the home in his Chevrolet Camaro. He said there was no fire in the home when he left. He explained that he wanted to get away for only a day or two to escape the stressful situation at home. Weisheit said he had brought the flares into the home, but had not given them to the child or come into contact with them at the time of the fire. Instead, he speculated that the flares were possibly placed near the boy's body by first responders in an effort to "stage" the scene.

Defense: John Patrick Biggs, George A. Strieb, Andrew Adams

Date of Murder: April 18, 2012
Victim(s): Christine Whitis W / F / 75 (Friend of Mother)

Method of Murder: Manual Strangulation

Summary: Gibson confessed to the murder of three women. 75 year old Christine Whitis was a close friend of Gibson's mother, who died in 2012. According to Gibson, she had even babysat him as a child. On April 18, 2012, Gibson called her, saying that he was still grieving over his mother's death and wanted to talk. Whitis came to the home. When she resisted Gibson's sexual advances, he strangled her with his hands. He removed her clothing and fondled her genitals. He then dragged her to his attached garage and severed her breast, putting it in the minivan that she had driven to his home. It is unknown exactly at what point during this ordeal that she died. The following day, Gibson's sisters came to the home, discovered the body, and called police. Hours later, Gibson was arrested in the Whitis minivan in the parking lot at Walmart. The breast of Christine Whitis was found in the console. Following a jury trial, Gibson was found guilty as charged in less than 20 minutes. The jury recommended a death sentence and Floyd County Superior Court #1 Judge Susan L. Orth sentenced Gibson to death.

Based upon Gibson's confession, Investigators dug in the backyard of his home and discovered the body of 35 year old Stephanie Kirk in a shallow grave, clad only in a torn bra and vest. According to Gibson, on March 25, 2012 he and Stephanie Kirk had spent the evening drinking at local bars, taking pills and returned to his home, where they had sex. After an argument over pills, Gibson strangled her to death with his hands. He then dragged the body into the garage and two days later buried her in his backyard. An autopsy revealed a broken back. At trial, Gibson unexpectedly pled guilty during jury selection and was sentenced to death by Floyd County Superior Court #1 Judge Susan L. Orth.

Based upon Gibson's confession, he was also charged with the murder of 44 year old Karen Hodella, a Clarksville hairdresser whose body was recovered from the Ohio River in Clarksville in 2003. Gibson claimed to have met Hodella in a New Albany bar, and stabbed her to death on October 10, 2002. Gibson entered a guilty plea to her Murder and was sentenced to 65 years imprisonment.

Gibson gained some notoriety for showing up during pretrial hearings with a new tattoo on the back of his shaved head "Death Row X3," apparently obtained in the Department of Corrections, where he had been held for safekeeping. Gibson wanted everyone to know that he was facing 3 death sentences. Judge Orth ordered him to have no haircuts before trial.
